ROEMER GIVES BOND TO APPEAR IN COURT.

Special Patrolman Will Be Arraigned To-Day on the Charge of Assaulting Three Young Ladies-Remains on Duty.

Special Fatrolman T. Rosser Roemer, under loud to answer the charge of assaulting three young ladies, will quit his poine duties to-day long enough to piead sully or not quilty in the Court of Criminal Cortection. In due course of time he will be called into court to armid trial.

Menumbile, he not only enjoys the full privileges and emoluments of his position, but the marked consideration of his superior officers. Notwithsianding the fact that Assasiant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson found muple evidence on which to base a warrant charging assault and battery, Captain Reynolds and Chief Carophell still refuse to believe that officer Roemer has been guilty of anything that would justify them in suspending him pending trial of the case. more than 20 per cent will vote for him. By the time election day arrives it is confidently predicted that there will be a slump of railroad votes to Mr. Dockery.

This city ordinarily should give Flory a good vote. He resided here for years and it is generally credited among railroad men as his home town. Most of the people of Moberly are acquainted with him. He ran into this town on the Wabash as a conductor for years. It was here he received his start as a politician. This county (Randolph) was for Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner. but that is all. The sympathy does not extend to his aspirations for Governor of Missouri. Flory is aware of this. Although he has made speeches at various points of the State, he has ignored Moberly, and the citizens say for good reason. He couldn't draw a Corporal's guard at a meeting, and the feeling of his former fellow-employes in every branch of the Wabash system is well known to the Republican State Committee. This is why Mr. Flory is not billed to appear at Moberly. The sentiment against him is growing day by day and he desires to keep away. Many Republicans who work to keep away. Many Republicans who work in the shops here are outspoken against in the shops here are outspoken against him, and not a Democrat in the whole confirmation and the frank of the Go him, and not a Democrat in the whole construction department of the Wabash road

Out of this entire number, many of whom are Republicans, Mr. Flory will not receive a vote. There are about 100 firemen and Mr. Flory's strength among them is estimated at two votes. In the ear republication description, there f family invited to attend.

Moberly this year will roll up the largest Democratic vote it has cust for

A system has been in vogue on the Wa-bash to keep its men out of politics. This has resulted in some disastisfaction at this point. Flory Avoids Moberly.

These railread men who are actively opposed to Flory are careful that their names should not appear in print for fear it may result in their discharge. Working under this order has placed them at a disadvantage. There are plenty of able men among them who would give their reasons over their own signature, but they fear for their pesitions. One of them said to-day:

"Mr. Flory or the Republican State Committee need not count on the railroad vote of Moberly. There is a bitter feeling toward the Republican candidate for Governor here that cannot be smoothed over. We know Flory well, Many of the men worked with him, and if you can find any one of them who will support him for Governor, I'll stake a dollar for each. The statement that the railroad men of the State will vote for him is directly one trary to facts. He will rast a smaller vote among the railroad hots than did his predecessor four years ago."

This scritisent seems to be present among all the railroad men of the city. They are all the railroad men of the city. They are not soing to support Mr. Plory, and he knows it.

Commissioners.

Yesterday Chairman McCaffery of the Board of Election Commissioners received a letter in answer to a communication from Associate City Counselor Charles C. Allen. The Associate City Counselor gives it as his opinion that an election not held under the anspices of the board will be illegal. This abswer was transmitted to Chairman Farrington by Judge McCaffery hast evening. So far as the Board of Election Commissioners is concerned, this opinion probably will prevent them from turning over the poll books or in any way adding the committee to hold a primary election under its own amplices.

The Republican State Committee has recently received at its hendquarters in the litical postal car's. The lifes is a new one in campaigns, and it demonstrates what a willing carrier the Republicans can make of the United States Post Office Department. The card is the size of an official envelope. On the back is an extract from some Republican's speech showing the great thangs the party has done on paper. On he face of the card in one corner is the statement that is part of the Congressional Rerord and goes free through the mails. On the other corner is the printed autograph of the author of the speech, who is a member of Congress. These cards only need the address and they are mailable matter under the frank of the Government.

Political Notes.

-The Bryan-Dockery Club of the Fifteenth Ward will hold a mass meeting to night at its hall, Seventeenth and Wash streets, at which prominent speakers will be heard on national and State Issues.

-Congressman C. F. Cochran of St. Joseph will address a meeting of Democrats to night at Bellevue Garden, King's highway and Faston avenue. The preciset and ward organizations have combined to make the meeting a success. Other prominent speakers will be in attendance.

-L. H. Davis, ex-Congressman from the Fourteenth District, now a resident of Hantsville, Ala., was one of the prominent visitors to Democratic State headquarters at the Laclede yesterday. Mr. Davis is here on business, but he still manifestic enough of his old-time interest in Missouri politics to drop around to see that the old wheel-horses are keeping the State in line.

Mr. T. E. Miller, Grand Prairie Dallas County, Tex., was cured of catarrh of the bowels by Feruna. He says:
"I had chronic diarrhoea for fifteen years. Peruna was recommended by a friend and it relieved me at once. I am perfectly well and I keep Peruna as my family medicine now."
